We finally get a look at all four regular characters and a glimpse of where they come from.

Linda Crawford, the underdog small town girl who wants to leave her town and make something of herself.

Rita Fernandez, the military family thoroughbred and fourth-generation Marine-to-be who wants to become a sergeant major like her papa.

Donna King, the jaded elite who decides to go off and do her own thing, like enjoying gay fiction.

Yumi Nagumo, the clumsy Nipponian girl who wants to become the President of Amerigo and enlists in the Marines...?!
